Illinois' Richest Man Signs What May Be Country's Most Expensive Lease Ever

By Chuch Sudo

Citadel founder/CEO Ken Griffin, Illinois' richest man, continues to send shock waves across New York's real estate landscape. Citadel signed NYC's most expensive lease ever at L&L Holdings' under-construction 425 Park Ave. Citadel is leasing 200k SF on the penthouse level for a reported $300k per SF.

The lease may also be the most expensive in the nation's history. Griffin, whose net worth is $7B, is also looking to close on a $200M condo at 220 Central Park South, dubbed the "billionaire's bunker." That makes Griffin responsible for the largest residential buy in the country's history. Read all about the lease in our NY pub.
